Collect Complete Executive-level Information.

During the show period of SEMICON Taiwan, we will organize executive-level networking events, please recommend two executive team members who are above vice president level. Please click HERE to submit the form.

UFI, an international organization which represents the interests of the exhibition industry worldwide has been warning the exhibition industry to be vigilant against Fair Guide, Expo Guide, Construct Data, Commercial Online Manuals and other similar guides and organizations such as Event Fair, AVRON and the International Fairs Directory. By submitting their forms, exhibitors are contracted into a three-year, non-retractable agreement totaling nearly US$3,000. This is an on-going issue and is not related to the SEMICON Taiwan Event Directory.

Please note that these companies do not represent SEMI in any manner. If you receive a form from these companies, please BEWARE of these scams and IGNORE it. Information about SEMICON Taiwan will come from SEMI only. SEMI hereby remind exhibitors that please review every contract or attachments carefully, before you submit any signed documents, please verify with your own legal representative to protect your rights and benefits.

For more information about UFI’s action against Fair Guide, Expo Guide, Construct Data, Commercial Online Manuals, Event Fair, AVRON and International Fairs Directory, please visit (https://www.ufi.org/industry-resources/warning-construct-data/). If you are a U.S. company that has been targeted by either organization, it is important to lodge a complaint with the Federal Trade Commission file a complaint online.

If you still receiving these scams, here are actions to take:
1. Recommend receiver to review the email sender, review any URLs and determine it to be valid or not, then take action.
2. To mark the email as Junk or Phishing.
3. Ask email system administrator to block domain.
